Globetrotting Judoka visits the JMJC

The JMJC welcomed the Globetrotting Judoka and hosted him April 7-10, 2017. Morgan Girardeau has been on a Judo World Tour that has so far spanned 34 countries visiting over 150 dojos. Morgan has been on this tour for almost 2 years. You can follow him by liking his Facebook page, Judo World Tour - The Globetrotting Judoka.
New York, NY - A USA Judo and New York Athletic Club (NYAC) legend, Jason Morris received the prestigious "Lifetime Achievement Award" on March 26, 2017 at the historic NYAC. Morris was on hand at the historic club to coach the USA Men's team at the 34th NY Open when, during a break in the action, he was surprised with the ceremony to celebrate his phenomenal achievements in the sport of judo. 2017 also represents the 25th anniversary of Morris' Olympic glory in Barcelona as well as his father's Bernie's untimely death, 9 days following Jason's victory.

Morris enjoyed one of the all-time great careers for USA Judo, which included winning a silver medal at the Olympics, being a 4x Olympian (1988, 1992, 1996 & 2000), winning a bronze medal at the world championships along with being the head coach of the Olympic Judo team in 2008. His NYAC accolades already included becoming the first judoka inducted in its Hall of Fame, being named as its best overall athlete in 1993 and winning the NYAC's first Olympic judo medal in 1992. Morris’ success was an integral part of raising the NYAC judo budget, so future stars could receive more funding, including Olympic medalists Kayla Harrison (Gold, 2012 & 2016), Marti Malloy (Bronze, 2012), Jimmy Pedro (Bronze, 1996 & 2004), Ronda Rousey (Bronze, 2008) and Travis Stevens (Silver, 2016). Morris also founded the Jason Morris Judo Center (JMJC) in Glenville, NY, which has become one of the top programs in the country. In fact, JMJC developed Stevens for his first Olympic appearance in 2008, as well as Rousey in her early years, long before she found fame in MMA.

The JMJC boasts more good news on the day with the results of the USA men's and women's teams, as they both took silver medals, including terrific performances from JMJC/NYAC athletes Brad Bolen, Quentin Cook and Hannah Martin, as well as former JMJC prodigy Jack Hatton. The men reached the final for the first time since the NY Open became a team event seven years ago. "I am extremely honored and proud to receive this award from this institution (NYAC) which I hold in such high regard," Morris said after the ceremony. "It was an extra bonus that my wife, Teri, my twins, Randi & Dani and my mother (Chris) could be here to share this with me, as well as so many current and former JMJC athletes."

Morris receives the award from long time NYAC Judo Chairman, Kevin Earls along with his wife Teri and twins, Dani (left) and Randi.

One of the highlights of the event was a demo put on by Japanese judo players who work for a sake company and call themselves the sakemen. They included the cute 7-year-old Morris twins in their demonstration, to the delight of the sellout crowd.

MartIn & Turner WIn Bronze

Panama City, Panama - Burnt Hills High School Graduate, Hannah Martin (28) and Alex Turner (24) from the Jason Morris Judo Center in Glenville turned in the performances of their career to date as they both won bronze medals at the Pan Am Judo Championships, April 28, 2017. Martin only lost an overtime thriller to Yanka Pascolino (Brazil) in the semis. Martin then defeated former 2x Pan Am Champ, Maricet Espinosa (Cuba) in a crazy crowd-pleasing bronze medal bout which included multiple scores with a lot of action. This result moved Hannah's 63kg world ranking all the way up to #27 from #42. Martin adds this to her bronze in 2013 in her fifth Pan Ams.

Turner went 3-1 on the day in his maiden trip to the Pan Ams with his only loss coming in the semis losing to Eduardo Araujo (Mexico). Like Martin, Turner lost an overtime thriller. Turner jumps up a whopping 29 slots in 73kg on the world ranking list up to a career high #35. Both Martin and Turner also represent the New York Athletic Club. "This was a tremendous performance by the kids" Commented Coach, Jason Morris. "Alex and Hannah put in so much effort in the dojo and it's showing on the field" 4x Olympian, Morris continued. The JMJC has now won 16 total medals at the Pan Am Championships in its 16-year history.
Salt Lake City, Utah - Athletes from the Jason Morris Judo Center (JMJC) had a stellar day at the US Sr. Nationals, April 29, 2017 winning six medals including three gold. Brad Bolen (28) and Kell Berliner (23) led the way both taking titles in their respective divisions. Bolen went 4-0 in 73kg on his way to claiming his 4th straight National title and 5th overall, tying Carrie Chandler for the most for a JMJC athlete in its 16-year history. Bolen also ties Chandler's mark of eight total medals at the Nationals for the JMJC. Berliner earned his first National crown going 4-0 at 81kg becoming the first one in his family to do so. Kell's father, Gary, was a National contender during the early 80's taking four (3 Silver) overall medals but never gold. Gary and Kell exchanged a touching father/son embrace directly after Kell's victory.

Burnt Hills High School Senior, Quentin Cook (18) took his second straight National silver medal at 66kg losing again in the final to Cole Chandler (19) from Hawaii. Cook was leading the bout 2-1 in scores when he was called for an illegal head dive and disqualified with about 30 seconds left. Chandler defeated Cook in last year's final as well. Bolen and Cook also represent the NYAC. Pete Stanley (32) was a double medalist on the day, first winning a gold in the Masters (30-34yrs.) +100kg division then picked up a bronze in the Open weight category. Nate Keeve (22) made it all the way to the final of 100kg before losing to John Jayne and settling for silver. Nate is the son of 2x Olympian Damon Keeve. Damon was a 2x teammate of JMJC head coach Jason Morris as they both were on the 1992 & 1996 team together.

While this group was doing battle in Salt Lake City, the Pan Am Championships in Panama City were on its second day where JMJC Nicole Stout (20) competed. Stout dropped her first 70kg match to Maria Carla Chirila (Canada) and was eliminated from her first Pan Ams. Yesterday on Day 1 of the Pan Ams, Hannah Martin and Alex Turner took bronzes. "This was a terrific weekend all around for the JMJC" Coach and 4x Olympian, Jason Morris commented. "Even the Boston Celtics won this weekend, closing out the Bulls in six" Morris wryly continued as he is an avid Celtics fan. A big JMJC thank you to the legendary comedy team, the Smothers Brothers for the autographed photos. They are Thomas and Richard who are singers, & musicians as well as comedians. The brothers' trademark double act was performing folk songs (Tommy on acoustic guitar, Dick on string bass), which usually led to arguments between the siblings. Tommy's signature line was, "Mom always liked you best!" Tommy (the elder of the two) acted "slow", and Dick, the straight man, acted "superior". In the 1960s, the brothers frequently appeared on television variety shows and issued several popular record albums of their stage performances. Their own television variety show, The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour, became one of the most controversial American TV programs of the Vietnam War era. Despite popular success, the brothers' penchant for material that was critical of the political mainstream and sympathetic to the emerging counterculture led to their firing by the CBS network in 1969. One show was left unaired. The brothers continued to work, both independently and as a team, on stage and television, and in films during subsequent decades.
Vinnie Moore, currently of the legendary rock band, UFO gives the JMJC a shout out. Moore is one of the most influential and important guitarists to emerge from the virtuoso boom in the mid to late eighties. Moore played lead guitar with the heavy metal band Vicious Rumors on their debut album, Soldiers of the Night (1985). The album features Moore's solo-song "Invader", which was in the style of Van Halen's "Eruption". The shred guitar craze of the late eighties led to more releases for Shrapnel.[citation needed] Moore also began performing with other hard rock and heavy metal bands.

Moore joined Alice Cooper's band for a tour and then appeared on the "Hey Stoopid" (1991) album. Moore has been the lead guitarist for UFO since June 2003, releasing his first studio album with them "You Are Here" the following year in 2004. This has been followed by The "Monkey Puzzle" (2006), "The Visitor" (2009), "Seven Deadly" (2012) and "A Conspiracy of Stars" (2015).

Thank you to legendary Comedienne, Carol Burnett for sending the JMJC these fantastic photos! Burnett, who is also a singer and writer, whose career spans six decades of television. She is best known for her long-running TV variety show, The Carol Burnett Show, originally aired on CBS. She has achieved success on stage, television and film in varying genres including dramatic and comedy roles. She also has appeared on various talk shows and as a panelist on game shows. In the group photo, Burnett is pictured with her Carol Burnett show cast, Tim Conway (left), Vicki Lawrence and Harvey Korman.
Legendary Actor, Robert Wagner and his wife, Jill St. John who is also an actor, gives the JMJC a shout out. Wagner best known for starring in the television shows It Takes a Thief (1968–70), Switch (1975–78), and Hart to Hart (1979–84). He also had a recurring role as Teddy Leopold on the TV sitcom Two and a Half Men and has a recurring role as Anthony DiNozzo Sr. on the police procedural NCIS.

In movies, Wagner is known for his role as Number Two in the Austin Powers trilogy of films (1997, 1999, 2002), as well as for A Kiss Before Dying, The Pink Panther, Harper, The Towering Inferno and many more.

Jill St. John is perhaps best known for her role as Bond girl Tiffany Case in Diamonds Are Forever (1971).
